

Professionals in Philanthropic Collaboration

You have been personally selected to participate in an interactive conversation along with other colleagues from the non-profit arena.

Alan Pratt, President of Pratt Legacy Advisors, will be presenting a session for professionals in philanthropy.

March 3rd, 2010

1:00 PM – 3:00 PM

The Coal Creek Family YMCA
13750 Newcastle Golf Club Road, Newcastle, WA

Hosted by Garry Wycoff

If you would like to tour the facility before the meeting starts, feel free to arrive at 12:45pm.

Topics to be discussed include: donor recognition, donor development, donor appreciation, donor motivation, unlocking donor generosity, building life-long relationships with donors, and collaborating with allied professionals, just to name a few. We also will devote time to development and planned giving opportunities and challenges during these unique economic times. All confirmed attendees will be asked to submit their #1 topic of interest two weeks in advance of the meeting. We will review all responses and send a follow up email with the top 3 topics listed. We would ask you to come prepared to dialogue on these top three topics.

Comments from previous attendees:

"What an outstanding group of people. I really enjoyed the opportunity to be at today's event. Thank you for inviting me. I'm looking forward to the next one."

"It was a pleasure to meet with you today at Alan's offices. Thanks for being transparent and sharing your perspectives and stories. I was proud to be in the same room with such faithful, faith-filled, field agents of philanthropy. Keep up the great work you're doing."
