

PRESS RELEASE

Alan Pratt elected President of The International Association of Advisors in Philanthropy

The International Association of Advisors in Philanthropy is pleased to announce that Alan Pratt has stepped up to serve as President of the organization. As a Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy (CAP) and Certified Estate Planner (CEP), Alan has served on the board of AiP for the past three years.

The mission of AiP is:

- ♥ To inspire and educate advisors, helping them make philanthropic planning with their clients an integral part of their practice
- ♥ To create a unique network of support through collegial relationships among an intentionally diverse spectrum of professionals attracted to membership in our organization
- ♥ To promote the highest ethical standards in philanthropic planning

Alan is looking forward to telling you more about AiP. In the meantime, please visit the website for a full look.

<http://www.advisorsinphilanthropy.org/net/home/view/?page=1>

The International Association of
Advisors in Philanthropy™
Transforming communities through inspired giving™

